PLUNKETT RAYSICH ARCHITECTS (PRA) ANNOUNCES COMPLETION OF NEW PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

MILWAUKEE, WI - Plunkett Raysich Architects, LLP, one of Wisconsin's leading architecture and interior design firms, announced today the completion of Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School's new performing arts center in Jackson, Wis.

The 33,000 sq. ft. addition consists of two primary elements: a 750-seat auditorium and an academic wing for music education. The academic wing includes band and choral rooms, an ensemble room, staff offices and practice rooms.

The performing arts center also provides a dedicated space for daily chapel services and opportunities for local elementary and middle schools to enhance their own fine arts programs. For more information on Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School, please visit www.kmlhs.org.
